

Gloucestershire Local History Association

www.gloshistory.org.uk

Local History Day

Gardens for Food, Fun and Flowers

Saturday March 18th 2017

at Churchdown Community Centre
Parton Road, Churchdown, Gloucester, GL3 2JH

Programme

- 10.30 Doors open. Refreshments available.
- 11.00 Welcome and Introduction.
- 11.10 Dr Jan Broadway - Florists' Feasts and after: the history of gardening societies in Gloucestershire.
- 12.00 Lunch break and time to view displays and bookstalls. Refreshments available.
- 1.30 Dr Jeremy Burchardt - Gloucestershire's place in the early allotment movement.
- 2.20 Announcement of the winner of the Bryan Jerrard Award for what the judges believe to be the best article on an aspect of Gloucestershire's history in a local history publication during the preceding year. Thanks to The History Press for sponsoring this year's award.
- 2.30 Announcement of the winner of the Best Display.
- 2.40 Tea break and last chance to view displays and bookstalls.
- 3.10 Michael Brown 'The Historic Gardener' – Ghastly Gardening: Horticulture's Horrible History.
- 4.00 Close.

Displays

Local history societies, groups and organisations will be mounting displays on the chosen theme.

Three judges will decide on the best display.

There will also be bookstalls with a variety of local history books for sale.

Admission and refreshments

Admission to the event is free.

Tea, coffee and biscuits will be available on arrival, at lunchtime and at afternoon tea break.

Sandwiches and cakes will be available at lunchtime.

Donations towards the cost of refreshments would be appreciated.

The GLHA Local History Day is sponsored by the Midcounties Co-operative Community Fund
through the Gloucestershire Community Foundation

Gloucestershire
Community Foundation